Event Horizon Pyrotechnics Limited (the 'Organisation') aims to provide defect free products and services to its customers on time and within budget.

The Organisation operates a Quality Management System in adherence to BS EN ISO 9001: 2008, including aspects specific to the provision of services relating to the design, development, manufacture, testing and demilitarisation of explosive and non-explosive articles.

As part of its adherence to the above system and in line with the companies Quality Policy, annual quality objectives are set by senior management.

Senior management has set the following objectives for the year 2016:

1. Achieve customer satisfaction through zero customer complaints in 2016.
2. Thorough review of the quality management system by conduct 3x management reviews in 2016.
3. Product and process improvement by a maximum of 5x non-conformances in 2016.
4. Commitment to development through return of all non-conformance actions within a month of being raised.
5. Commence the transition to BS EN ISO 9001: 2015

All employees should be familiar with the above objectives and through their work assist in achieving these targets.
